

RODDER'S DIGEST

VOLUME 16 NUMBER 77
April 1997

Feature Rods & Customs

- 6 Punch it, Heat it, Haul it!
This is one hot F-100.
- 18 On the Mark
A neat '36 Chevy, cabriolet-style.
- 32 '34 Haulin' Glass
One fantastic plastic '34 Ford roadster pickup.
- 42 Topless Tudor
A Deuce sedan is more fun when you remove the roof.
- 66 The Twilight Zone
Tough-soundin', hard-drivin' '39 Chevy two-door.
- 72 Rusty's Rod
Rusty Wallace spends his time off the track in this '27 T coupe.
- 74 Happy Days Are Here Again
FOUND! The original Happy Days roadster pickup.

Tech & How-To

- 26 Tech Tips
We'll super-size 'em for a quarter more.
- 38 Trunk Latch Tech
Chuck Cobb shows us how to shut the deck on a budget.
- 40 Ask Dr. Hot Rod
The Doctor is in, and your shot is ready.
- 46 Get Framed!
The RD Chassis Buyer's Guide.
- 52 Coil Clamp
A stylish, inexpensive way to mount your hot rod's coil.

ON THE COVER

Hendrickson got some hot shots on Jerry Nowak's much-flamed and well-ventilated F-100 at last year's Back to the '50s, and Burger got the drop on the original Happy Days roadster pickup, now owned by hot rodder extraordinaire Jerry Duncan.

SUBSCRIBE TODAY!
1-800-875-2997

- 54 UPDATE: Project Strat-O-Streak
Nosing, rust repair, and glass removal.
- 68 Construction Zone
A Hemi-powered '33 Plymouth hi-boy coupe.
- 70 Construction Zone
It's always Miller Time in this shop.

Events

- 34 CANATS 96
The silver anniversary Nats north of the border.
- 59 Frog Follies
It's always easy being green in Evansville, Indiana.

Departments

- 4 Bench Racing
11 Rodders Write
20 Fifteen Things
22 Rodder's News
30 Survey Sez
78 Events
79 RD Book Review
80 Classified Ads
81 Advertisers' Directory
82 Here's Where I Draw the Line
Lance Sorchik

Page 6

Page 42

Page 54

Page 59